

Scientific Programme per day Wednesday 25 October

25-28 OCTOBER 2006, AMSTERDAM, THE NETHERLANDS

TIME	ROOM
13.00- 18.00		Registration
13.00- 16.00	Agora 2	Parallel conference Heroine treatment trial Conveners: W. van den Brink (Academic Medical Centre Amsterdam, the Netherlands), D. Vlahov (New York Academy of Medicine, United States of America), G. van Brussel (Municipal Health Service Amsterdam, the Netherlands) Invitational conference that can be attended by Canadian and other participants of the ICUH with a special interest in the topic. Speakers: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• M.T. Schechter (University of British Columbia, Vancouver, Canada): Presentation Canadian Trial• U. Vertheim (University of Hamburg, Hamburg, Germany): Presentation German situation• W. van den Brink (Academic Medical Centre, Amsterdam, the Netherlands): Presentation Dutch situation• E. Oviedo-Joekes (Andalusian School of Public Health, Granada, Spain): Presentation Spanish situation• J. Strang (National Addiction Centre, King's College London, United Kingdom): Presentation British situation• F.G. Moeller (University of Texas Health Science Centre, Houston United States of America): Stimulant maintenance treatment• V.M. Hendriks (Parnassia Addiction Research Center, Rotterdam, The Netherlands): Contingency management in the context of Heroin Assisted Treatment• T. Podymow (University of Ottawa, Ottawa, Canada): Shelter-based managed alcohol administration to homeless alcoholics
13.00- 15.30		Side visits <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Polyclinic for Sexually Transmitted Infections2. Heroine Unit3. Parent and Child Centre4. GHOR Emergency Communications centre and the Ambulance Service5. Care and Nuisance Centre6. Migrant Health Educators7. Measurement site for Different Air Pollutants8. Visit tot day care centre "Kraka e Sewa" for Surinam elderly people
16.30- 17.00		OPENING CEREMONY Speakers: <ul style="list-style-type: none">A. Verhoeff, presidentJ. Cohen, Mayor of Amsterdam
17.00- 18.00		Keynote Lecture
18.00- 20.00		Welcome Reception – Vrije Universiteit, Amsterdam

TIME	ROOM
07.30- 18.00		Registration
08.30- 09.10	Aula	Plenary 1: Health and its determinants of multicultural urban population- Newborns G. Bonsel (Academic Medical Centre, Amsterdam, the Netherlands)
09.10- 09.50	Aula	Plenary 2: Epidemiology and control of infectious diseases in multicultural urban populations R. Coutinho (Centre for Infectious Disease Control, RIVM, Bilthoven, the Netherlands)
09.50- 10.30	Aula	Plenary 3: Migration as determinant of the health of urban multicultural populations M. Carballo (International Centre for Migration and Health, Switzerland) Chair for plenary sessions: D. Vlahov
10.30- 11.00		BREAK
11.00- 12.45	1A-05	Workshop 1 Community genetics Convener: M. Cornel (EMGO-institute, VU University Medical Centre, Amsterdam, the Netherlands) Speakers: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • H. Brand (Institute of Public Health Northrhine Westphalia, Bielefeld, Germany), Policy implications of 3rd generation immigrants for Northrhine-Westphalia, Germany • H.I.J. Wildschut (Erasmus University Medical Centre, Rotterdam, the Netherlands): First things first! A new community-based model for preconception care • K. Brown (Institute of Psychiatry, King's College London, London, United Kingdom): The measurement of attitudes toward prenatal screening for haemoglobinopathies among women from minority ethnic groups: Are traditional instruments suitable? • A.M. Plass (VU University Medical Centre, Amsterdam, the Netherlands): Informing the migrant population in Amsterdam about their enlarged risk for haemoglobinopathies • A.M. Plass (VU University Medical Centre, Amsterdam, the Netherlands): Attitudes and intentions of primary health care providers on stimulating screening for haemoglobinopathies in ethnic high-risk groups in the Netherlands
11.00- 12.45	2A-05	Workshop 2 Culture & health; ethnic differences in health Conveners: H. Bonink & E. van der Veen (The Netherlands Organisation for Health Research and Development (ZonMw), The Hague, the Netherlands) Chair: M. Braakman (De Gelderse Roos, Expert Centre Phoenix, Renkum, the Netherlands)

- Speakers:
- I.G. van Valkengoed (Academic Medical Centre, Amsterdam, the Netherlands): Diabetes mellitus and cardiovascular disease in 35-60 year old South Asian, Surinamese, African Surinamese and ethnic Dutch men and women: the SUNSET study
 - G.W.J.M. Stevens (University Utrecht, Utrecht, the Netherlands): Acculturation and problem behaviour in immigrant youth in the Netherlands
 - A.J.M. Richters & M. Jonkers (Leiden University Medical Centre, Leiden, the Netherlands): Ethnic differences in maternal morbidity in the Netherlands: An anthropological study of patient perspectives
 - E. Uiters (Department of Justice, The Hague, the Netherlands): Ethnic differences in health care utilisation

11.00- 12.45

2A-06

Workshop 3 Urban health research: methodologies (i.g. multilevel analysis monitoring)

Conveners: E. van Ameijden (Municipal Health Service, Utrecht, the Netherlands) & F. van Lenthe (Erasmus University Medical Centre, Rotterdam, the Netherlands)

- Speakers:
- E. van Ameijden (Municipal Health Service, Utrecht, the Netherlands): Monitoring health in the city: methods and indicators
 - B. Chaix (INSERM UMR-S U707, Paris, France): Advantages and drawbacks of cluster-recognition approaches, multilevel models, and spatial models in the investigation of neighbourhood effects on mental disorders
 - M. Huisman (Erasmus University Medical Centre, Rotterdam, the Netherlands): Designing of an instrument to measure objective health-related characteristics of the neighbourhood

11.00- 12.45

Aula

Orals (O-001 – O-006)

Health and its determinants of multicultural urban populations: infectious diseases

Chair: M. Bruinzeels

- O-001 C.E.A. Lindenburg (Municipal Health Service Amsterdam, Amsterdam, the Netherlands): Hepatitis C screening and treatment among drug users in Amsterdam: interim results of the Dutch C project
- O-002 L. Frescura (St. Michael's Hospital, Toronto, Canada): Educational attainment and clinical outcomes for recipients of highly active antiretroviral therapy (HAART) in Ontario
- O-003 O. Agboola (Public Health Agency of Canada, Ottawa, Canada): Risk factors for sexually transmitted infections (STIS) and blood-borne infections (BBIS) in Canadian street youth
- O-004 M. Kramer (Municipal Health Service, Amsterdam, the Netherlands): Migrants travelling to their country of origin: a bridge population or HIV transmission?
- O-005 M.C.T. van der Helm, (Municipal Health Service, Amsterdam, the Netherlands): Health- and social care in prostitution
- O-006 V.C. Hammen (Centre for Environmental Research, Halle, Germany): Linking rare zoonosis with urban centers: increasing risk for Ebola and Marburg virus outbreaks

11.00- 12.45	2A-00	Orals (O-007 – O-012) Urban social environment and health: mental health Chair: S. Atkinson <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • O-007 J.C. Cartland (Children’s Memorial Research Centre, Chicago, United States of America): Witnessing violence at home and on the street: health behaviour correlates for urban African-American adolescents in the United States • O-008 P. O’Campo (St. Michael’s Hospital, Toronto, Canada): Urban neighbourhood influence on mental well-being among low and non-low income adults in Toronto, Ontario, Canada • O-009 B.S. Rachlis (University of Toronto, Toronto, Canada): Factors associated with migration among a cohort of injection drug users in Vancouver, Canada • O-010 J.P. Oste (Municipal Health Service, Amsterdam, the Netherlands): Care and nuisance centre. A cooperation model on care for the vulnerable population • O-011 W. Tuinebreijer (Municipal Health Service, Amsterdam, the Netherlands): Increasing rates of compulsory admissions in Amsterdam: the patients risk • O-012 P. Chauvin (INSERM Unit 707, Paris, France): Health and social inequalities: a population cohort study in Paris area
12.45- 14.00	Agora 2	LUNCH ISUH Executive Board Meeting
12.45- 14.00	1A-05	LS1 Lunch Symposium 1 People unite: using the Lay Health Advisor (LHA) model to eliminate health disparities in urban environments Convener: I. Williams Miles (John Hopkins University Bloomberg School of Public Health, Baltimore, United States of America)
	2A-05	LS2 Lunch Symposium 2 Policy and Practice of health care for marginalized patients in Amsterdam Convener: G. van Santen (Municipal Health Service, Amsterdam, the Netherlands)
14.00- 15.00	posterarea	Poster session 1 Posters: P-001 - P-083
15.15- 17.00	Aula	Workshop 4 Alcohol and urban health: challenges and opportunities for local policy. Convener: W. van den Brink (Academic Medical Centre University of Amsterdam, Amsterdam, the Netherlands)
	Speakers:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • I.C. Stolte (Municipal Health Service, Amsterdam, the Netherlands): Determinants of risky alcohol use among adolescents in Amsterdam • A. Treno (Prevention Research Centre, Berkely, California, United States of America): Alcohol outlet density and the incidence of drunken driving and violent assaults • A. Warburton (University of Manchester, Manchester, United Kingdom): Tackling alcohol related violence in the city centres: effect of emergency medicine and police intervention

- S. Vitale (IVO, Rotterdam, the Netherlands): The role of alcohol and drug abuse in emergency room visits
 - T. Podymow (Inner City Health Project, University of Ottawa, Canada): Shelter-based managed alcohol administration to chronically homeless people addicted to alcohol
- 15.15- 17.00 2A-06 Workshop 5 Health care for asylum seekers and illegal immigrants: debating practice and ethics
Moderators: N. Klazinga (Municipal Health Service, Amsterdam, the Netherlands) & K. Stronks (Academic Medical Centre, Amsterdam, the Netherlands)
This workshop is organised in cooperation with Pharos.
- Speakers:
- E. Bloemen, M. van Berkum (Pharos Knowledge Centre, Utrecht, the Netherlands): Situation in the Netherlands various care arrangements, scope of services, existing policy report, parliamentary debates, recent initiatives to condify professional norms and ethics
 - P. Chaivin (INSERM Unit 707, Paris, France): Out-or-status person's access to health care: A cross sectional survey in 19 cities of 7 European countries
 - N. Klazinga: discussion
- 15.15- 17.00 1A-05 Workshop 6 Urban green space, health and social safety
Convener: R. Verheij (NIVEL, Utrecht, the Netherlands)
Co-Chair: A. van den Berg (Wageningen University, Wageningen, the Netherlands)
- Speakers:
- J. Maas (NIVEL, Utrecht, the Netherlands): Green space, health and feeling of social safety
 - S. de Vries (Alterra, Wageningen, the Netherlands): Possible mechanisms behind the relationship between green space and health, and their neighbours, and their implications
 - M. van Winsum & A. van den Berg (Wageningen University, Wageningen, the Netherlands): Are allotment gardeners healthier than their neighbours without a garden?
 - E. van Gernerden & H. Staats (Leiden University, Leiden, the Netherlands): Safe and green: conceptions of social safety, and consequences for the design of urban nature
- 2A-00 Orals (O-015 – O-020)
Health and its determinants of multicultural urban populations: behavioural and social determinants
Chair: S. Galea
- O-015 A.B. Pawar (Smimer, Surat, India): Social determinants, suboptimal health behaviour and morbidity in multicultural urban slum population: an Indian perspective
 - O-016 K.H. Hosper (University of Amsterdam, Amsterdam, the Netherlands): Socio-economic and cultural determinants of physical inactivity and overweight among non-Western migrants in the Netherlands: does gender matter?

- O-017 A. Diepenmaat (Municipal Health Service, Amsterdam, the Netherlands): Ethnic differences in prevalences and psychosocial impact of overweight among adolescents in Amsterdam
- O-018 I.M. Meer, van der (Municipal Health Service, The Hague, the Netherlands): High prevalence of and preventable risk factors for vitamin D deficiency in non-Western immigrants in the Netherlands
- O-019 W.T. Caiaffa (Federal University of Minas Gerais, Belo Horizonte, Brasil): Nutritional factors associated to hypertension in an urban mixed-race population in Brazil
- O-020 M. van Eijsden (Municipal Health Service, Amsterdam, the Netherlands): Micronutrient deficiencies in a multi-ethnic, urban cohort of pregnant women: first results of the Amsterdam born children and their development study

2A-05

Orals (O-022 – O-026)

Urban social environment and health

Chair: A. Verhoeff

- O-022 Jolivet (Hopital du Kremlin Bicêtre, Le Kremlin Bicêtre, France): Social capital, social networks and health among the elderly in Paris
- O-023 O. Agboola (Public Health Agency of Canada, Ottawa, Canada): Why are youth on the streets?: findings from enhanced surveillance of Canadian street youth (E-SYS)
- O-024 D.J.H. Deeg (VU University Medical Centre, Amsterdam, the Netherlands): Discrepancies between personal income and neighbourhood status: effects on changes in physical and mental health
- O-025 S.A. Grier (The University of Pennsylvania, Pennsylvania, United States of America): Culture as resilience: examining the link between urbanization, identity, and smoking among black women in South Africa
- O-026 L. Messer (Chapel Hill, United States of America): Racial residential segregation and adverse birth outcomes

16.00

Side-visit registration at the ICUH website:

A late afternoon walking tour in the city centre red light district
(only for visiting doctors for homeless, who will participate in the workshop: Doctors for Homeless on Friday afternoon)

19.30

PRESIDENT'S DINNER (by invitation only)

TIME	ROOM
07.30- 18.00		Registration
07.30-08.30	1A-05	ISUH General Membership Meeting
08.30- 09.10	Aula	Plenary 4: Health care: demands and needs-public mental health L. Sederer (The City of New York, United States of America)
09.10- 09.50	Aula	Plenary 5: Improving health of urban multicultural populations D. Vlahov (New York Academy of Medicine, United States of America)
09.50- 10.30	Aula	Plenary 6: Urban environment and health J. Spengler (Harvard School of Public Health, Boston, United States of America) Chair for plenary sessions: P. O'Campo
10.30- 11.00		BREAK
11.00- 12.45	1A-05	Workshop 7 Promoting social inclusion and tackling health inequalities- a European exchange of good practice Convener: I. Stegeman (EuroHealthNet, Brussels, Belgium)
	Speakers:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • H. Saad (Qec-Eran European Regeneration Areas Network, Quartiers en crise): Presentations of the network and its activities • J.L. Drubigny (Urbact): European Community initiative programme aiming to facilitating networking between cities facing urban difficulties • L. Avedano (Urb-health thematic network): Presentation of project by the project coordinator-the city of Turino, Italy • E. van Ameijden (Municipal Health Service, Utrecht, the Netherlands): Urban health indicators project developed by the city of Liverpool
11.00- 12.45	2A-06	Workshop 8 Aging in urban environments in the US: findings from racial and ethnic subpopulations Convener: C.F. Mendes de Leon (Rush University Medical Centre, Chicago, United States of America)
	Speakers:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • C.F. Mendes de Leon (Rush University Medical Centre, Chicago, United States of America): Neighborhood conditions, health and well-being in an urban population of older blacks and whites • K.A. Cagney (University Medical Centre, Chicago, United States of America): Social interaction and interracial unease • J.A. Kelly-Moore (University of Maryland, Baltimore, United States of America): Spatial distribution of food in black and white : new insights about food availability in a segregated city • K. Eschbach (University of Texas Medical Branch, Galveston, United States of America): Neighborhood variation in disability rates and living arrangements of older hispanics in urban neighborhoods in the United States

- T.A. Glass (Johns Hopkins Bloomberg School of Public Health, Baltimore, United States of America): Neighborhoods as risk regulators in the health of older adults

11.00- 12.45

2A-00

Workshop 9 Improving health of multicultural urban populations
Convener: A. Möllmann (Gesundheit Berlin E.V., Berlin, Germany)

Speakers:

- T. Borde (Alice-Salomon-Fachhochschule Berlin, Berlin, Germany): Gap between patients' needs and treatment for multicultural populations in emergency departments
- W. Gulis (Verein ZEBRA, Graz, Austria): Changing strategy?
- H. Verrept (University Antwerpen, Antwerpen, Belgium): Intercultural mediation at Belgian hospitals
- A.E. Hesselink (Municipal Health Service, Amsterdam, the Netherlands): Can ethnic health care advisors bridge the gap between the ethnic minorities and health care and welfare services?

11.00- 12.45

Aula

Orals (O-027 – O-031)

Health promotion and the community STD/HIV

Chair: G.Bröring

- O-027 A.I. Alabi (Combact Aids Africa/Global Resources & Public Health, Lagos, Nigeria): Youth and HIV/AIDS: the challenges and way forward
- O-028 C.G. George (St. Michael's Hospital, Toronto, Canada): 'Keep it alive': creating an HIV prevention social marketing campaign for African and Caribbean people in Ontario
- O-029 J. Walter (Municipal Health Service, Amsterdam, the Netherlands): Community based HIV prevention: experiences in Amsterdam, the Netherlands
- O-030 C.A. Leaver (The AIDS Bereavement Project of Ontario, Toronto, Canada): Expanding the support needs profile of long-term survivors of HIV: implications for HIV-prevention, AIDS service organizations and community health centres
- O-031 R.H. Koekenbier (Municipal Health Service, Amsterdam, the Netherlands): Online syphilis testing: the use and efficacy in Amsterdam of free of cost and anonymous syphilis testing through the internet

11.00- 12.45

2A-05

Orals (O-032 – O-037)

Urban physical environment and health

Chair: M. Verstappen

- O-032 S. Sonmez (Emory University School of Medicine, Atlanta, Georgia, United States of America): The geography of disease risk in American inner-city truckstops
- O-033 S. Zenk (University of Illinois at Chicago, Chicago, United States of America): Is heightened obesity risk in high-poverty urban neighbourhoods due to neighbourhood differences in food store availability?
- O-034 H. Kruize (National Institute for Public Health and the Environment, Bilthoven, the Netherlands): Socio-economic differences in actual and perceived environmental conditions in the Netherlands – an environmental equity study

- O-035 G. Booth (St. Michael's Hospital, Toronto, Canada): Neighbourhood characteristics, walking and diabetes mellitus in a large Canadian urban centre
- O-036 P.L. Robinson (Charles R. Drew University, Los Angeles, United States of America): Disparities in preventable hospitalizations in Los Angeles county, California: how much is due to neighbourhood differences in access to care?
- O-037 F.A. Proietti (Federal University of Minas Gerais, Belo Horizonte, Brasil): Micro-environmental and macro-environmental risk factors for urban visceral leishmaniasis in a large city in Brazil

12.45- 14.00

LUNCH

12.45- 14.00

1A-05

LS3 Lunch Symposium 3
WHO activities on housing and health
Convener: M. Braubach (WHO European Centre for Environment and Health, Bonn, Germany)
Chair: A. Ellaway (MRC Social and Public Health Sciences Unit, Glasgow, United Kingdom)

2A-05

LS4 Lunch Symposium 4
Interdisciplinary approaches to teaching urban health: an open discussion
Conveners: N. Freudenberg (Hunther College, CUNY, United States of America), S. Galea (University of Michigan School of Public Health, Ann Arbor, Michigan, United States of America), D. Vlahov (New York Academy of Medicine, New York, United States of America)

14.00- 15.00

posterarea

Poster session 2 Posters: P-084 - P-160

15.15- 17.00

1A-05

Workshop 10 Urban primary health care
Convener: A. Verhoeff (Municipal Health Service, Amsterdam, the Netherlands)

Speakers:

- F.J.M.H. Barten (Radboud University, Nijmegen, the Netherlands): Addressing the social determinants of health inequity in urban settings? - the role of settings-based approaches in enhancing participatory governance
- A. Kesler (Municipal Health Service, Amsterdam, the Netherlands): Parent & Child Centres in Amsterdam
- T. Sreeramareddy (Maniapl College of Medical Sciences, Pokhara, Nepal): Home deliveries in an urban population of western Nepal - A questionnaire survey of reasons, childbirth and newborn care practices
- K. Ziraba (African Population and Health Research Centre, Nairobi, Kenya): Constraints and barriers to women's treatment seeking behavior in response to obstetric emergencies: the case of Nairobi informal settlements, Kenya
- I. Statius-Muller (G.P. Gezondheidscentrum Venserpolder): Health promotion in primary health care: an example of the center for primary health Venserpolder, Amsterdam, the Netherlands

- F. van Eck (Primary health care Amsterdam): Organization and support of primary health care in deprived area's of Amsterdam

15.15- 17.00

2A-06

Workshop 11 Doctors for homeless

Convener: I.R.A.L. van Laere (Municipal Health Service, Amsterdam, the Netherlands)

Speakers:

- J. O' Connell (Harvard Medical School, Boston, United States of America): Reflections from the streets: two decades of caring for homeless persons in Boston
- A. Jones (University of Oxford, Oxford, United Kingdom): Addressing the healthcare needs of homeless people through interprofessional education...or how on earth did I get myself into this?
- N. Wright (HMP, Department of Health Prison Health Unit, Leeds, United Kingdom): Research on homelessness and health: a personal perspective
- J. Withers (the Mercy Hospital of Pittsburgh, Pittsburgh, United States of America): A Streetmedicine network in the USA: personal experience of the founder of Operation Safety Net
- I.R.A.L. van Laere (Municipal Health Service, Amsterdam, the Netherlands): Doctors for homeless and care for the poor in a rich country: a personal Perspective

15.15- 17.00

Aula

Orals (O-040 – O-045)

Health care, demand and need of multicultural populations: HIV

Chair: B. Middelkoop

- O-040 A. Bayoumi (St. Michael's Hospital, Toronto, Canada): Ethnic and geographic differences in access to free, universally accessible genotypic resistance testing in Ontario, Canada
- O-041 L. Musoro (London Metropolitan University, London, United Kingdom): The implications of migration from sub-Saharan Africa to the UK on HIV/AIDS service provision in London and urban centres in the surrounding home counties
- O-042 N. Sohler (City University of New York Med. School, New York, United States of America): Perceived discrimination and patient ratings of the HIV health care system and their providers
- O-043 I. M. de Boer (National Institute for Public Health and the Environment, Bilthoven, the Netherlands): Risk behaviour and knowledge of positive HIV status among injecting drug users in the Netherlands
- O-044 E. Lloyd-Smith (BC Centre for Excellence in HIV/AIDS, Vancouver, Canada): Public injecting among users of Vancouver's supervised injection facility
- O-045 W. Teixeira Caiaffa (Weill Medical College Cornell University, New York, United States of America): Health care utilization of Brazilian HIV/AIDS treatment services: comparing injecting drug users and other clients

25-28 OCTOBER 2006, AMSTERDAM, THE NETHERLANDS

- | | | |
|--------------|-------|---|
| 15.15- 17.00 | 2A-00 | Orals (O-046 – O-051)
 Health promotion and the community: health communities
 Chair: C. Gibbons <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • O-046 A.D. Demirchyan (American University of Armenia, Yerevan, Armenia): Impact of a multi-year community health partnership on urban-rural differences in Armavir Marz, Armenia • O-047 H. Chemaitelly (American University of Beirut-FHS, Beirut, Lebanon): Social capital outweighs economic resources in its association with self rated health among older men and women in underprivileged communities in Beirut, Lebanon • O-048 J.T. Ramsay (St. Michael's Hospital, Toronto, Canada): A transdisciplinary evaluation of the community advisory panels model of community responsiveness at St. Michaels Hospital, Toronto, Canada: removing barriers and building bridges through hospital and community collaboration • O-049 D.J. Abatemarco (University of Pittsburgh, Pittsburgh, United States of America): US/Split, Croatia partnership to reduce adolescent alcohol use – a community intervention • O-050 E. Sellström (MidSweden University, Östersund, Sweden): The significance of neighbourhood context to child and adolescent health and well-being, a systematic review of multilevel studies • O-051 R. Travers (Ontario HIV Treatment Network, Toronto, Canada): Maximizing research uptake for community attendees at health conferences: evaluation results from ICUH, Toronto, 2005 |
| 15.15- 17.00 | 2A-05 | Orals (O-052 – O-057)
 Urban physical and social environment and health
 Chair: E. van Ameijden <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • O-052 G.C.W. Wendel-Vos (National Institute for Public Health and the Environment, Bilthoven, the Netherlands): Environmental attributes related to walking and bicycling at the individual and contextual level • O-053 A. Ellaway (Medical Research Council, Glasgow, United Kingdom): Subjective perceptions of the local social and physical environment and their associations with health • O-055 C. van Hooijdonk (National Institute for Public Health and the Environment, Bilthoven, the Netherlands): Social or physical environment: which is more important when it comes to health? • O-056 K.R. Standish (New York Academy of Medicine, New York, United States of America): Correlates of overcrowded housing among undocumented Mexican immigrants in New York City • O-057 L. Simich (Centre for Addiction and Mental Health, Toronto, Canada): Liminality and mental well-being among non-status immigrants in Toronto: qualitative aspects of stress stigma, social support and control |
| 19.00- 24.00 | | Congress Buffet and PARTY in the Wintertuin,
 Grand Hotel Krasnapolsky, Amsterdam |

TIME	ROOM
07.30- 15.00		Registration
08.30- 09.10	Aula	Plenary 7: Urban health policies and politics in Europe Convener: A. Tsouros (WHO-Europe, Urban Health) Chair: N. Klazinga
09.10- 10.00	Aula	Debate: Urban politics and health Convener: N. Klazinga (Academic Medical Centre, Amsterdam, the Netherlands) Panel members: S. Atkinson (Regional Public Health Group, London, United Kingdom) L. Sederer (The City of New York, United States of America) A. Tsouros (WHO-Europe) Representative of Berlin Responsible alderman Amsterdam
10.00- 10.30		BREAK
10.30- 12.00	2A-06	Workshop 12 Informal care governance: dealing with turbulent reforms in care and welfare services Convener: L. Verplanke (University of Amsterdam, Amsterdam, the Netherlands) Speakers: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • W.G.J. Duyvendak (University of Amsterdam, Amsterdam, the Netherlands): Social cohesion and social integration of vulnerable groups • E.H. Tonkens (University of Amsterdam, Amsterdam, the Netherlands): Democratic control and influence by care • D.L. Willems (University of Amsterdam, Amsterdam, the Netherlands): Quality of informal care
10.30- 12.00	2A-00	Workshop 13 Community based interventions examples of good practice in different countries Conveners: K. Stronks (Academic Medical Centre, Amsterdam, the Netherlands), B. Middelkoop (Municipal Health Service, The Hague, the Netherlands), R. Travers (St. Michael's Hospital, Toronto, Canada) Speakers: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • J. Harting (Maastricht University, Maastricht, the Netherlands): Participation revisited. A conceptual framework for the core principle of community based interventions • R. Travers (St. Michael's Hospital, Toronto, Canada): Collaboration between community and academic partners in urban health research • R. Corstjens (Municipal Health Service, Amsterdam, the Netherlands): Healthy lifestyle westerpark: a participatory action research project on overweight among Turkish and Moroccan women in Amsterdam

25-28 OCTOBER 2006, AMSTERDAM, THE NETHERLANDS

- | | | |
|--------------|-------|---|
| 10.30- 12.00 | 1A-05 | Workshop 14 Urban youth policy and youth health care
 Convener: E.J. de Wilde (Municipal Health Service, Rotterdam, the Netherlands) Speakers: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • F. Öry (TNO Quality of Life, Leiden, the Netherlands): What are the necessary changes in working frame of youth health care to become a key player in local youth policy? • M. Kamphuis (TNO Quality of Life, Leiden, the Netherlands): What new competences should be present in the training of medical professionals in this respect? • E.J.de Wilde (Municipal Health Service, Rotterdam, the Netherlands): What good practices and relevant technical and organizational developments are present and needed to facilitate this process? |
| 10.30- 12.00 | Aula | Orals (O-058 – O-063)
 Urban disasters
 Chair: R. Verheij <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • O-058 T. Thomas (University of Pittsburgh, Pittsburgh, United States of America): The 2001 anthrax attack: lessons learned and best practices • O-059 S. Tracy (Sunnybrook Health Sciences Centre, Toronto, Canada): Bird flu in the city: ethical considerations in preparedness planning for pandemic influenza • O-060 K. DeSalvo (Tulane School of Medicine, New Orleans, United States of America): Post-traumatic stress disorder in a New Orleans workforce following hurricane Katrina • O-061 K. Newton (Beyond Ground Zero, New York, United States of America): Beyond ground zero network: a model for a grass roots response to health needs following an environmental urban disaster • O-062 M. Rubin (Columbia University, New York, United States of America): World Trade Center evacuation study: incidence of disabilities and medical conditions • O-063 K.K. Kyng (Bellevue Hospital Centre, New York, United States of America): Beyond ground zero network and Bellevue hospital: a model for a community-medical partnership following an environmental urban disaster |
| 10.30- 12.00 | 2A-05 | Orals (O-064 – O-069)
 Urban politics and health
 Chair: H. Verkleij <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • O-064 A. Konseiga (APHRC, Nairobi, Kenya): Family migration as a vehicle for urban poverty • O-065 N. Freudenberg (Hunter College, New York, United States of America): The impact of corporate practices on the health of cities: implications for health promotion • O-066 C. E. Tannahill (Glasgow Centre for Population Health, Glasgow, United Kingdom): A healthier future for Glasgow: building understanding, evidence and insights into how to make measurable improvements to our city's health |

- O-067 J.P.G. Schreurs (Municipal Health Service, Utrecht, the Netherlands): Methods for demand-oriented prevention policy
- O-068 C.H.S.B. van den Berg (Municipal Health Service, Amsterdam, the Netherlands): Injecting drug users who fully participate in harm reduction programs are at decreased risk for HIV and HCV, evidence from the Amsterdam cohort studies
- O-069 R.A. Downing (Johns Hopkins School of Public Health, Baltimore, United States of America): Love through the eyes of urban African American youth: a community-based photo voice project in Baltimore

12.00- 13.00

REPORTING/SUMMARY & CLOSING CEREMONY